Fighter

Knight

Barbarian

Barbarians are based on the D&D Barbarian subclass. They have some fighter abilities plus additional abilities due to their strength and temperament.

Samurai

Samurai are based on a combination of historical samurai and the D&D monk class. (Hand-to-hand combat is not allowed in this LARP, so samurai have some of the D&D monk abilities.)

Mage/Wizard

Wizards (sometimes called mages) are based on the D&D wizard class. Unlike D&D, there is only one type of magic in this LARP. Spellcasters specialize based on the types of spells they know.

Stealth-Based

Thieves

Assassins

Assassins are based on the D&D assassin class. They are adept at hiding and moving quietly and waylaying other characters.

Hunters are based on the D&D ranger class. They have skills relating to tracking, hiding or moving silently in outdoor settings and dealings with nature. They have a few nature-based spells.

Other character types include rogues (characters with enhanced stealth), rangers (characters with enhanced outdoors abilities) and bards (characters with ability to influence others with their personality and entertainment abilities (e.g., acting, storytelling, music))
